Nebraskan concluded his denunciation, a round of very doubtful applause announced that the delegates were almost unanimously with them? Did they look sick as their floor lender strode forward and took his place upon the stand with the cry: "I will answer this insolent challenge of the gentleman from Nebraska". The they look

Ne Attack on State Sovereignty.
To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir,—Much has bene written about
Mr. Bryan's resolution in the Baltimore convention in regard to Mr. Ryan, Mr.
Flood treated it as an attack on the sovereignty of Virginia But this is not the first time that this sacred character of the State has been used to cover ulterior desgins. It was used in the last Legislature to defeat the income tax amendment, though the income tax has found a place repeatedly.

Dallas, Texas, July 9.—The so-called progressives with a far under awakening during the last two parts. The people are undoubtedly for progress, but the politicians in charge of the State insist on keeping measure calculated to uphold official responsibility and to curb the power of the privilege interests was voted down, such as the fax wommission bill, the income tax amendment and the bill to aboltsh fees. Then the Norfolk convention! Its cowardly policy of uninstructed delegates, its manta to the progressive in the selection as a delegate of a trust manta two resides in New York—all show that an oligarchy and not the people or ear in the saddle.
